

Build Effective Teams

BET

Let's strive to build effective teams regardless of where the team is at in terms of synergy and cohesiveness. In this 2-hour virtual learning experience, you will improve your understanding on different stages of team development and strengthen your ability to diagnose, then manage individuals in a team collectively to achieve higher level of effectiveness, trust and performance.

Target Audience

This course will benefit all leaders or individual contributors in corporate organizations, professionals, entrepreneurs and business owners.

Pre-requisite: None

Duration

4 hours (4 credit hours)

Objectives

This course equips participants with practical techniques to:

- Discover the importance of understanding team development journey
- Understand the 5 stages of team development
- Diagnose and manage teams effectively through the stages of team development

Course Topics

- The importance of understanding team development journey
- Stages of team development
- Managing different stages of team development

Desired Outcomes

- Better results in projects
- Optimized performance at work
- Higher self-confidence
- Enhance adaptability and agility in various situations
- Realize unique and repeatable success